

Placement Opportunity

Sunlabob was established in the Lao PDR in 2000 and operates affordable and reliable energy solutions with renewable energy sources in locations on and off the grid. Sunlabob operates as a profitable, full-service renewable energy provider selling hardware and providing commercially viable energy services.

Our headquarters and base are in Vientiane, the capital of the Lao People's Democratic Republic. For more information please visit www.sunlabob.com. Sunlabob is currently seeking positions as below to carry out a wide range of duties in support of its current projects.

Multimedia Internship

Primary responsibilities:

- Design marketing and advertising materials
- Produce simple promotional videos
- Work closely with the Marketing and PR team to develop promotional material
- Work up design ideas using computer-based design packages
- Good knowledge of print and online design

Requirements:

Essential

- Bachelor Degree (or near completion) or Diploma in Multimedia/Design or Arts
- Computer skills, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Publisher, Video editing software
- Good designing skills
- Work experience is preferred
- Interest in renewable energy
- Dynamic, confident, and strongly motivated
- Strong planning and organizational skills
- Excellent working knowledge of English
- Pro-active person who can operate both individually and as part of a team, and in a multicultural environment

Other details:

- Location: Laos
- Start date: ASAP
- Duration: Minimum 6 months

How to Apply: Apply in writing (Cover letter + CV in English) by email to:

contact@sunlabob.com

Or send to: Watnark village, Sisatanark district, Capital Vientiane.

Tel: 021 313874, Fax: 021 314045

What we offer:

- Opportunity to work in a young and dynamic multicultural Lao and Foreign working environment
- Field trips to rural and remote areas to understand how villagers live
- Opportunity to work on videos that will be submitted for international competitions
- Gain diverse working experience