

Placement Opportunity

Sunlabob was established in the Lao PDR in 2000 and operates affordable and reliable energy solutions with renewable energy sources in locations on and off the grid. Sunlabob operates as a profitable, full-service renewable energy provider selling hardware and providing commercially viable energy services.

Our headquarters and base are in Vientiane, the capital of the Lao People's Democratic Republic. For more information, please visit www.sunlabob.com.

Sunlabob is currently seeking positions as below to carry out a wide range of duties in support of its current projects.

Marketing and Business Development Intern – Energy Audit and Efficiency Department

Primary responsibilities:

- Develop business model for energy efficiency activities and products
- Conduct research and market analysis
- Conduct research on funding opportunities
- Work closely with engineering team, sales and management team of Sunlabob

Requirements:

Essential

- Bachelor Degree or Diploma in Business Administration/International Business
- Finance knowledge preferable
- Commercial experience
- Good computer skills (Microsoft word and excel)
- Dynamic, confident, and strongly motivated
- Strong planning and organisational skills
- Excellent working knowledge of English
- Pro-active person who can operate both individually and as part of a team and in a multicultural environment

Other details:

- Location: Laos
- Start date: ASAP
- Duration: Minimum 4 months

How to Apply: Apply in writing (Cover letter + CV in English) by email to: contact@sunlabob.com

Or send to: Watnark village, Sisatanark district, Capital Vientiane.

Tel: +856 (0) 21 313874, Fax: +856 (0) 21 314045